This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's motion to supplement and amend the complaint (Filing No. 30). Plaintiff now seeks to amend her complaint to add a retaliation claim.<sup>1</sup> Defendant does not oppose plaintiff's motion to supplement and amend, but requests that the Court (1) schedule a planning conference and extend progression of the case; (2) limit the deadlines in the new progression order, as practicable, to the retaliation claim; and (3) only extend those deadlines in the Second Final Amended Progression order that have not yet lapsed so that plaintiff cannot use the amended complaint as a means to evade those deadlines in the Second Final Amended Progression Order that have already passed.

Having reviewed the parties' briefs, the Court finds that plaintiff's motion to supplement and amend the complaint should be granted. The Court will hold another scheduling conference and will address defendant's concerns regarding limiting the deadlines at that time. Accordingly,

3) A scheduling conference will be held on:
